REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to a television system having a terminal for receiving a television program. Each independent claims identifies a uniquely distinct features: "a first adjustment unit, arranged in the terminal, for adjusting a predetermined output characteristic of the image or the sound to be outputted by the image display device by modulating the signal to be outputted to the image display device based on the change of the one kind of ambient environment transmitted by said transmission unit, and a second adjustment unit, arranged in the image display device, for adjusting another output characteristic of the image or the sound to be outputted by the image display device by modulating the signal received from the terminal based on the change of another one of the plurality of kinds of ambient environment detected by said detection unit". All the references of record, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
